Comments:
The Hakko FX-8804 SMD Hot Tweezer is a great optional handpiece to the Hakko FX-888 Soldering Station. Using the Hakko FX-8804 SMD Hot Tweezer allows for direct simultaneous contact of both sides of a chip component or flat pack allowing the simple and safe removal of components as large as 25mm wide. The tweezer tips are easy to change simply by turning the nipple to loosen them and removing the tips using the included heat resistant pad. The molded design of the handpiece fits comfortably in the operator's hand to provide stability and reduce fatigue.

The Hakko FX-8804 SMD Hot Tweezer uses the same 950 Series tweezer tips as the original Hakko 950 SMD Hot Tweezer providing 15 differnt geometries to fit the various components found on PCBs today.

NOTE: The Hakko FX8804-CK Conversion Kit includes the FX-8804 SMD Hot Tweezer and an FH-800 Holder (PN: FH800-02BY) with sponge, which is designed to hold the FX-8804. The holder clip has two slots that are used to align the tips prior to use.
