Official Raspberry Pi Zero Case

It also comes with an exclusive short ribbon cable that will connect your official camera module to your Raspberry Pi Zero. Also included with the case are four sticky, rubber feet that fit into the indents on the underside of the case. The underside of the case features a cut-out for the GPIO pins which means you always have access to expand your Raspberry Pi and add sensors, LEDs, switches and all manner of other things. The case is compatible with all models of Raspberry Pi Zero including the new Zero W
