Hot-air Rework Replacement Element - Temp Controlled

TOL-11130 RoHS

Description: Here's a replacement heating element for our hot-air rework stations. It's compatible with Sunkko stations and our own branded rework station. The element is the same for other manufacturers and the connector can be modified by a skilled user to work with other manufacturers. This element includes a thermocouple element at the tip of the air flow with two wires to be connected to a temperature sensing circuit.
